"There where you are, God is". St Mary of the Cross MacKillop

Dear Parents,

'What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?'

At the start of this year, the church in Australia received Papal approval for our county's bishops to hold a Plenary Council. This process has not been undertaken for over thirty years. It is an open invitation to all members of the Catholic Church to voice their opinion, reflection, experiences and views in response to the key questions above. Please do not miss this opportunity to have your voice heard.

Further information may be found at <http://plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/>

NEWSLETTER

OLA FORMATION GOAL: For students to further develop their knowledge of God's presence in their lives through a deeper understanding of the Scriptures.

Students at OLA are learning to reflect on the Scriptures using the THREE SENSES-Literal (About the story), Spiritual (Church teachings and sacraments) and Application (Being the Face of God through your Words, Actions and Thoughts)

After reading the Scripture story as a family think of the following questions:

WHERE IS GOD REVEALED IN THE SCRIPTURE? (SPIRITUAL SENSE)

HOW CAN YOU USE YOUR AWARENESS OF GOD'S PRESENCE IN YOUR LIFE? (APPLICATION SENSE)

Sunday 17th June 2018: Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time-Year B Gospel (Mk 4:26-34)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The mustard seed, the smallest of all the seeds, grows into the biggest shrub of all.

Jesus said to the crowds, 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time; he starts to reap because the harvest has come.'

He also said, 'What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.'

Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone.

Reflection

This week's gospel is a wonderful example of the teaching style of Jesus. It even tells us that 'he would not speak to them except in parables'. Jesus used the parable form almost exclusively to share his message. He used imagery that was familiar to his audience; parables about the everyday life of a rural community: seeds, planting, growing, harvesting. The secret of Jesus' parables, when we understand the cultural context, is that there was always a 'twist in the tale' – what is called a 'discombobulating shift' – that turns the expected outcome of the story on its head.

This is nowhere more evident than in the image of the mustard seed. On the surface the parable is about the kingdom of God starting from very small, humble beginnings and growing into something great. However, immediately prior to this kingdom parable, Jesus has reminded us that the community makes a living out of growing grain crops like wheat for bread, etc. His parable about the mustard seed describes a tiny seed that grows into a great shrub 'so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade'. A farming community that was growing grain crops would be greatly alarmed at the thought of actually attracting birds to their fields or even nearby. Jesus' message about the kingdom of God is that it is actually disruptive and invasive. The kingdom brings unrest and disquiet to the predictable. The kingdom of God is unsettling. This is a much more challenging parable than it appears from a literal reading.

Literacy News

Helping Your Child with Spelling:

Invest in a set of plastic magnetic letters that are available at many discount, toy, and variety stores. Let your child spell the word by successively placing the magnetic letters on the magnetic board. You can show them the word, then remove it. Have them name each letter as they locate it and place it on the board. This is good for developing the correct order for letters within the words.

Pyjama Day

Once again we have been overwhelmed with such generous donations for our annual St. Vincent De Paul Winter Appeal. We would like to extend a huge thank you to all parents and children who supported this very important social justice initiative. We also raised $650.00 in gold coin donations and we are going to purchase more blankets etc to add to our collection for St Vincent de Paul. Well done also to the Mini-Vinnies team who promoted this special day and took the time to collect all the warm and woolly blankets and doonas.

Athletics Carnival 2018

What started out with blue skies and no clouds quickly turned to grey skies with scattered showers here and there. This did not stop us from running the carnival. I would like to send an enormous thank you to Mr Anderson for transporting and helping us set up our new gazebos. To the handful of parents who were at the carnival to help set up and assist throughout the day THANK YOU. Without you, our carnival would not be able to run. Your support and assistance was greatly appreciated. Also, thank you to the Dance Fever team for organising and running the events throughout the day. I would like to thank the P and F for supplying drinks and snacks to the volunteers and for manning their stall along with Mrs Blazey for operating her coffee van at the event. I am sure many parents appreciated a hot cup of coffee on such as cold winter's day. Thank you to Castle Hill Highway Patrol for helping ensure students and teachers were able to cross Withers Rd safely.

Mindfulness in action at OLA: Cultivating Kindness, Appreciation and Positivity

Have you ever heard of a 'Moodle'? A 'moodle' is a drawing or a doodle with the power to change your mood. All that is needed is a pencil, imagination, an open mind and being prepared to delve into your innermost thoughts, ideas and concepts. The photos of the following mindful task required the students to draw the glass half FULL of cheer. Firstly they were asked to close their eyes and imagine all the things that lift their mood and fill them with delight. The following examples from KG are just delightful and a wonderful example of appreciation.

What fills your cup with cheer? Terina Macare

Debating

In Week 3, Mary Immaculate, Quakers Hill visited Our Lady of the Angels to debate the topic "Television is better than books". We were the affirmative team, and although we did not all agree that television is better than books, we found some good arguments to prove our point.

We had some very strong and convincing arguments about the information that television programs give us these days, the cost difference between buying books and buying television channels, and the extensive time taken to publish a book and therefore causing the reader to get 'old news'.

We were convincing in our arguments, and spoke well, and won the battle this week! Congratulations to Charlotte Zahra, Ava Bennett, Alannah Lock and Jasmyn Robertson for all of their hard work!

A special thank you also to Mrs Singh, who gave up her time to adjudicate the debate. It was not an easy task!

Our first "Debating Star of the Week" for this year is Charlotte Zahra.

As third speaker, her speech was well thought out, and she really summed up our teams case well. Charlotte did a great job of getting our team line "Books are in the past, TV will last" across to the audience and ensuring that the adjudicator was left with no choice but to agree with us and the arguments that we put forward. She scored high marks from the adjudicator for her efforts, and definitely did not show the nerves associated with taking part in her first debate. Congratulations Charlotte!

In Week 6, we travelled to John XXIII to debate the topic "That the internet has become more harmful than useful". This time, we were the negative team, and although we put forward some good arguments we were not the most convincing team on the day.

We highlighted the facts that the internet is not a threat, if people just use it with respect. There were lots of examples given about the importance of the internet these days, and the ways that it makes our lives easier. We also highlighted the ways that if used properly it can be beneficial for up to date information. Congratulations to Julian Vargas, Klaudia Stankiewicz, Isabella Ponturo and Georgia Domars for all of their hard work preparing for this debate!

Our "Debating Star of the Week" for Week 6 is Julian Vargas.

As our first speaker, Julian was able to set the tone for our debate. He made a convincing argument about the positive uses of the internet and the many ways that it has made our lives better. Julian spoke with confidence and commanded the attention of the audience. For his first debate Julian did a great job, and should be proud of the way that he spoke and presented his points. Great work Julian!

Our next debate will be in Week 9, where Our Lady of the Rosary Kellyville will come to OLA to debate the topic "That mobile phones should be banned for primary school students". All are welcome to attend.

Mrs Kylie Leach, Year 6 Teacher
